MILLBURY MEMORIAL HIGH

SCHOOL - CLASS OF '82

MILLBURY MEMORIAL HIGH SCHOOL.

MILLBURY, MASSACHUSETTS.

The structure of Millbury Memorial High School has witnessed many renovations during the past four years. But within its bounds is where the true change has taken place. In each stage of our high school years, we have experienced friendships, developed as individuals, and expanded our awareness of ourselves and others. The structure is only the framework for a process of growth and change which allows us to face the futures we envision.

OUR MILLBURY ALBUM

As the title implies, this book is a recording of all the important happenings that took place this year and in years past. Its theme- an Old Photograph Album- is emphasized by its shape and format, resembling a typical 19th century family album. In this perspective, MHS resembles a family in that we have shared moments of disappointment and achievement, and hope and progress while always striving towards individuality. Each of us has pursued different goals which have shaped our high school experience into something that is both unique and very special.

We, the class of 1982, proudly dedicate this book to Mrs. Francis Dupont—our class advisor—and Mrs. Sylvia Stepien—our yearbook advisor. Both have generously devoted their time and efforts to lead our class and have evoked a feeling of inspiration, shaping our high school years into something both worthwhile and memorable. For this, we thank you both.

had its ups ...

... and downs.

We learned about computers and how to grow things ...

... how to count ...

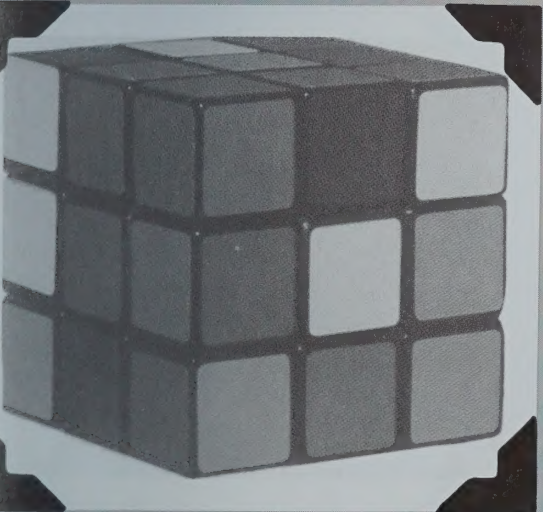

and how to keep house ...

under the "evil eyes" of our administration.

Despite them, we had fun!

We passed the hour

and some passed away,

but we made it through.

"It's a living."

"What did you call me!"

"Do you have my red crayon?"

"This thing smells horrible!"

"Hey! Where did all the water go?!"

"Quick! Which way to the men's room?"

Frisbee anyone?

"Send in the next victim!"

"How do I get talked into these things?"

And now our Horace Mann students ...

"Hey, what did they put in the punch?"

"I can do it myself!"

"Do I feel stupid!!"

"Such a dedicated worker!"

"It pays to be short!"

"Going my way, mister?"

"You can dress him up?" "Who put that puddle there?"

"Me and my pal?"

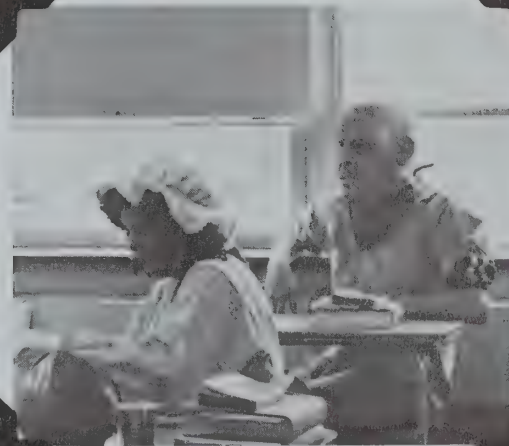

"Surprise! You left your windows open!"

"I refuse to lose my temper."

"I'll get that mosquito yet."

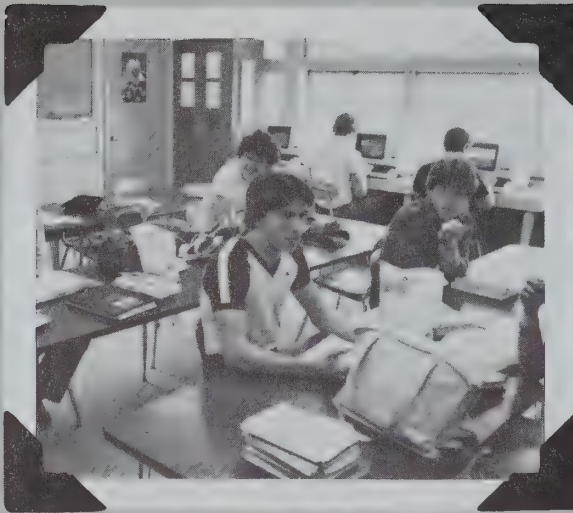

"He's Mr. Rosen's parents."

"Doesn't that air look heavy?"

a quick escape!

Some classes are so tough.

"Thanks for the lunchbox."

"Can't you do anything right?"

Such fragrant perfume.

"I'll make one of my uncle's nest."

"Weren't we just here last month?"

"Allow me to tell your fortune."

See - no rune!

Blondes do have more fun!

It beats splinters.

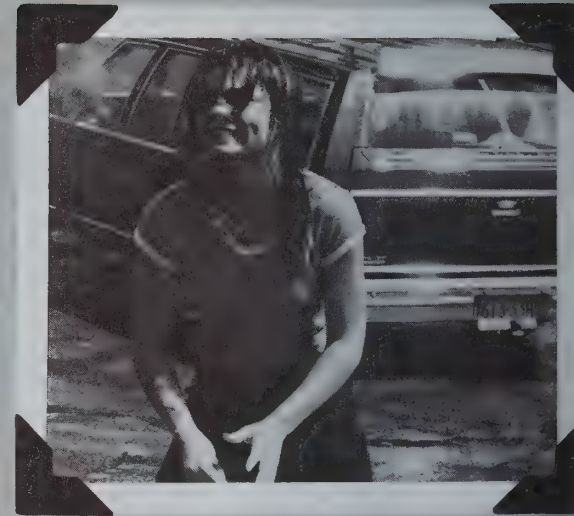

"Watch it! I know Judo."

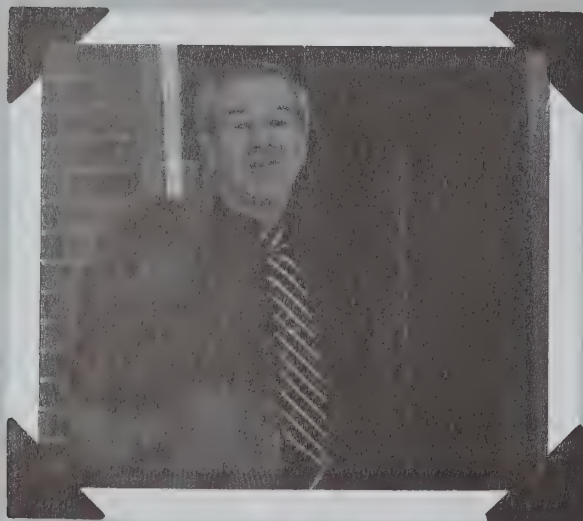

"I refuse to take that test."

"Neil Hitler!"

"Where's the soap?"

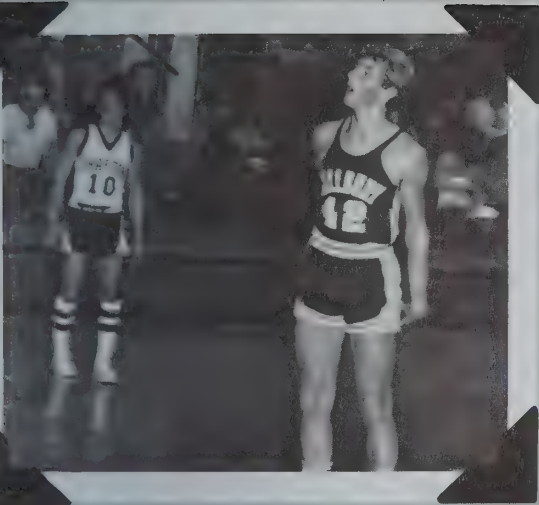

"I gave at the office."

"Cheese!"

"Believe me - it's as bad as it looks."

"Duh! which way did he go?"

"It looked like a shortcut ..."

"Mr. O'Leary should have warned him it was acid."

"Boy, are we thrilled!"

"Don't worry, I'll catch the ceiling."

"Roles are changing!"

This year both the boys' and girls' cross country teams were under the direction of Mr. Robert Nicoletti. The tri-captains, Anne Marie Bourdeau, Hollie Cristo, and Kathie Sylvia, led the girls' team to a 17-0 record, first place in the league meet, and runners-up in the District meet. Some notable athletes among the girls were Lynda McInerney, Julie Graves, Kim Ethier, and Irene Dunn.

Edward Sholtz was captain of the boys' team, whose record was 8-8. Outstanding boys were Dave Adams, Michael Hagan, Mark Bubon, and Edward Sholtz.

The Millbury High School football team experienced a rather depressing season. This year, after having a 0-0 tie with Nashoba Regional, then defeating West Boylston High School 20-0, the team was unable to maintain its winning momentum. The team consisted of a quick line, fast, hard-hitting running backs, and the fastest receivers in the league. Because of the strong defense, the opposing team's offensive line was usually kept to a minimum. However, our team's downfall proved to be the result of too many breakaways.

With the leadership and experience of returning veterans MaryBeth Belsito and Marcy Provencher, the team captains, the 1981-82 Field Hockey team had a decent season. Despite great offensive and defensive maneuvers, the team had some tough breaks. However, the up-coming J.V. players should make next year quite successful. The captains of the J.V. team were Lori Hayes and Darlene Belsito. These girls, as well as the others, intend to bear down and show the rest of the league how field hockey is played.

All the girls on the team extend their deepest thanks and appreciation to Ms. An Harrington for her continuous dedication and time. This was her last year as coach. Ms. Donna Stolberg, the current J.V. coach will take over as varsity coach for the 1982-83 season.

First-year coach, Robert Austin, led a team of six Seniors, seven Juniors, five Sophomores, and one Freshman through one of the toughest schedules that a Millbury High School soccer team has ever played. Captains Ray Baroni, Martin Devine, and Jim Weidman provided leadership through a very difficult season. The 3-2-9 record does not reflect the number of chances the team had to win games, especially under the lights at Windle Field. The team did end the season on a high note, winning its final two games-a spirit which will hopefully carry over to next year.

Standouts on the team were Jeff Pappas in net, Finnish exchange student Mika Veijalainen, midfielders Chuck Burke and Raymond Baroni, the tight defense of Vin Carney, Jim Brunelle, Jeff Grabauskas and Scott Hachey, and the offense of Bob Reney, John Prunier and Ken Roberts.

First year coach Ron Dunham, graced with many returning players, saw the team finish with a 2-7 record. Captains Rhonda Fresolo and Pam Krumsiek sparked the team to two victories over Whitinsville-Christian. With only one senior on the team, the returning experienced players can look forward to a very productive season next year. Along with Pam Krumsiek, players Sue Roseel, Diane Moore, Cathy Devine and Sherry Conger should realize the best season in Millbury Volleyball history next year.

This year's basketball team met with both failure and success. Although the team had a losing season this year, many members of the team showed great promise. The starting line-up consisted of four juniors-Michael Hagan, Douglas Hansan, Mark Flanagan, and Mark Higginbottom. The team was led by captains Glen Townsend and Scott Pendergast and coached by Ronald Dunham.

Under first year coach, Robert Nicoletti, the girls' basketball team played hard during what was basically a building year. With only one senior on the team, Captain Deb Walsh, the underclassmen squad readied itself for years to come. Juniors Julie Graves, Kim Ethier, Sue Modig, Lynda McInerney and Karen Gosselin, and sophomores Debby Mercer and JoAnn Dana gained valuable experience for next year. Also, Darlene Breault and Cheryl Baroni played well, coming up from the J.V. squad. The team can look forward to a good season next year.

The major highlight of both the girls' and boys' winter track season was that both teams, for the first time since the sport was started, finished with winning records. Under fourth year coach Dave Wilbur, the boys were 6-3-1, and the girls 7-3. The team competed at both South and Marlboro high schools. The teams were led to success by captains Jeff Blondin, Martin Devine, Anne Marie Bourdeau, and Hollie Cristo.

Since this year's baseball team was comprised mostly of underclassmen, no one expected them to do as well as they did. Led by an all senior pitching staff, two righties-Earl Mathews and Paul Giorgio and two lefties-Ron Stacy and Mike Ethier, the 1982 baseball team made it to the District E semifinals. Although their offense was quite good, their defense was the name of the game. With the infield gloves of Mike Hagan, a T&G Allstar shortstop and Jeff Pappas at second base, and the outfield abilities of Paul Donnelly and Steve Young, there were absolutely no holes in their defense. The team wishes to thank coach Bob Austin for turning his first year MHS baseball coaching job into a great success.

For the first time in five years the girls spring track team did not win the league championship, but first year coach Steve Cox still led the team to a very successful 8-3 season. A very young team, with only Three seniors and a majority of sophomores and freshmen, none of the meets they lost were far out of their reach. The highlight of their season was in defense of their District E Class B Track Championship, when they finished second, behind Blackstone-Milville by only $3\frac{1}{2}$ points. Deb Walsh, Kathy Sylvia and Hollie Cristo captained juniors-Lynda McInerney, Deb Dempsey, Kim Ethier, and Cheryl Gauthier, sophomores-Deb Mercer, Cathy Devine and Sue Stafinski and freshmen-Darlene Breault, Heather Christman, Brenda Bergeron, Dale Niddrie and Cristy Snelling.

Although the tennis team has only been in existence for four years, there has been a great improvement shown in the returning players, while attracting new recruits. Even if the records of the former tennis teams weren't so good and this years record was not the best, the degree of improvement was great enough so that in the next few years, a winning season is almost certain.

Special thanks to Mr. William Rosen for his time, effort, and patience.

After losing the S.W.C.L. crown last year, the boys' track team regained the title for the third time in four years. Under third year coach Dave Wilbur, a group of well-seasoned veterans and a good number of new recruits finished with a 10-2 record. Returning seniors were Martin Devine, Louis Rocheleau, Jeff Blondin, Frank McNamara, Russ Howard, and John Pearson and new seniors Scott Modig and Steve Gauthier. A 6-0 record in the league and a victory in the League Meet were highlights of the season. Also, seniors Jeff Blondin, Louis Rocheleau, and Martin Devine placed third as a team in the State Coaches' Decathlon Meet.

LAST WILL &

We, The Class of 1982, being of sound minds and bodies, do hereby bequeath all our worldly possessions in the form of this Last Will & Testament.

To Mr. Battye, we leave a deodorized stick-up to clear the air of pipe smoke.

To Miss DeFeudis, we leave a new hairdresser.

To Mrs. McCarron, we leave a stopwatch.

To Mr. Morrill, we leave a swimming pool fully equipped with a lifeguard.

To Mrs. Julian, we return her biology and health classes and insure with a written guarantee that she be forever free from the foods classes.

To Mr. Drake, we leave Mrs. Dupont as his interior decorator.

To Mrs. Dupont, we leave enthusiastic faculty members and students.

To Mr. Rosen, we leave Scottie P.

To Mr. O'Leary, we leave a season ticket to Fenway Park.

To Mr. Bruno, we leave a dedicated band.

To the Freshmen girls, we leave a flock of molting pigeons so that they may put feathers in their ears and hair.

To the cafeteria ladies, we leave a set of Betty Crocker recipe cards with file case in the color of their choice.

To Mrs. Matthews, we leave a library full of comatose mutes.

To Mr. Evers, we leave a clean record.

To Mr. Wadsworth we leave this month's issue of Penthouse to more aptly illustrate his theory of lust.

TESTAMENT

To Mr. George Desrosiers, we leave Mr. Wadsworth's used copy of Penthouse.

To Mrs. Griffin, we leave a room full of Dirks.

To Miss Rossi, we leave a leather bound copy of the High School Discipline Code to replace her worn and torn copy of the Middle School Code.

To Mr. Roger Desrosiers, we leave a clone of Donna Gover on a broken leash.

To Mr. Nicoletti, we leave the dream of next generation of seniors who also leave rabbit hraka on his desk.

To Mr. Robinson, we leave a track team that will not call him BooBoo.

To Mr. Murray's classes next year, we leave earplugs and pillows.

To Mr. Boudreau, master of graphic arts, we leave our thanks for everything!

To Mr. Clancy, we leave the fond memory of his quiet and reserved fifth period English class.

To Mr. Sack, we leave a waistline and college-bound students that will listen to his worldly knowledge.

To Mrs. Stepien, we affectionately leave the happiness of her new baby girl, Sarah.

To Mr. Healey, we leave a pair of Dr. Dentons and a teddy bear because he's so cute.

And finally, to the Junior girls, we leave Lucien.

And so we submit this Last Will & Testament, on this day, the fourth of June, nineteen hundred and eighty-two, as witnessed by Michelle Marrino and Diana Sauer.

We have come a long way.

Between yesterday and tomorrow, we stand, unsure of what the future holds.

But now we must go our separate ways and look into ourselves—for only there can we determine our values and achieve.

We will be unsure as we walk the path of life—wanting to go back, but looking ahead.

poem by J.J. Hamilton

WANTING TO GO BACK LOOKING AHEAD

Sharing our friendships, sharing our hearts,

Leaving is so hard to do.

Wanting to go back, looking ahead,
Seniors, we'll all make it through.

In time we'll think back to good and to bad.

Our memories will always stay true.

And now we're Seniors of '82,

Never give in and we'll never lose.

So Seniors, don't ever quit.

Stand proud and tall

For others to see . . . we're #1.

Millbury, we thank you,

Thank you with love.

This school will always be ours.

Others will follow, they will succeed,

No class will be quite like ours . . .

Now that it's our turn to conquer the world,

We'll leave and say our good-byes.

And now we're Seniors of '82,
Never give in and we'll never lose.

So Seniors, don't ever quit.

Stand proud and tall

For others to see . . . we're #1.
